

the quintessential farm

2619 Fairgrounds Road South
CREEMORE

A piece of history

Step back in time as you sit on one of the porches and take in the rolling hills and big sky in this charming century old farmhouse. Upon entering this home you are greeted by a handsome white ash staircase with paneling, white ash columns with arched entrance entice you into the parlour with wood burning fireplace. Off the parlour is the formal dining room with original stained glass windows and exquisite white ash trim. Large windows and high ceilings give the home a sense of light and space.
