An architect's dream

Designed by one of Canada's premier architects as his own personal retreat, this property has never changed hands. With elegance, beauty and it's spectacular setting this estate captures the dream of that perfect country retreat. Spacious open rooms, cathedral timber ceilings, a handsome stone fireplace and panes of glass set in rustic logs capture an expansive panoramic view making this home what it is – simply magnificent.

Set on just over 50 acres, well off the road and not a neighbour in sight. Large stone steps and a meandering path lead you down to the ponds edge where you can take in nature one step closer.

Offered at $1,699,000
